David Reed MP
Member of Parliament for Exmouth and Exeter East

Christmas E-Card Competition Guidelines – 2026

1. All entries must be received by 5pm on Monday, 30 November 2026. Entries may be emailed as a clear scan, photograph or digital file to david.reed.mp@parliament.uk, or posted to David Reed MP, 20 High Street, Exmouth, EX8 1NP.

2. There will be one overall winner, who will be notified by Thursday, 3 December 2026. The winning artwork will feature on David Reed MP's official digital Christmas e-card and may also be published on his website and social media.

3. All entries should fit the theme: "Devon Air Ambulance: Flying Home for Christmas".

4. Original drawings, paintings, collages, illustrations and digital artwork are welcome. Postal artwork should preferably be on A4 paper, kept flat and unfolded. Emailed entries should be supplied as clear photographs, scans or digital files.

5. Please include the entrant's name, age, postcode and contact details. For anyone under 18, provide a parent, guardian or school contact. Put these details on the reverse of posted artwork or in the accompanying email.

6. Schools may submit all entries from their pupils or choose a shortlist. Schools entering children's artwork should ensure they have the appropriate parental or guardian permission to enter and for possible publication.

7. The competition is open to people of all ages living in the Parliamentary Constituency of Exmouth and Exeter East. Any entries already submitted under the original arrangements remain eligible.

8. Original artwork submitted by post cannot be returned.

9. Entry is limited to one per person.

10. By entering, participants agree that their artwork may be used on David Reed MP's digital Christmas card and in related publicity, including his website, social media, local media and Parliamentary publications.

11. David Reed MP's decision regarding the winning entry is final, and no correspondence will be entered into disputing the result.

12. The one overall winner will receive a small House of Commons gift.

13. There is no fee or donation required to enter. David Reed MP will make a personal donation to Devon Air Ambulance, and recipients of the e-card will be invited to support the charity voluntarily.
